St. James's, July 24.

THE following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to the Lord Viſcount Weymouth, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of the Town or Borough of Kingſton upon Hull.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of the Town or Borough of Kingſton upon Hull, moſt humbly beg Leave, at this important Criſis, when formidable Armaments are prepared by our Enemies, and an hoſtile Invaſion of this Kingdom threatned by the united Powers of France and Spain, to approach your Throne with the warmeſt Aſſurances of our Duty, Fidelity and Attachment, and of our Readineſs to exert ourſelves to the utmoſt of our Power to ſupport your Majeſty againſt all Attempts that may affect the Honour of your Crown, or endanger the Safety, Intereſts and Proſperity of your People.

Given under the Common Seal of this Corporation the Fifteenth Day of July, 1779.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Kincardine.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Noblemen and Gentlemen of the County of Kincardine, in General Meeting aſſembled, being animated with the warmeſt Sentiments of Zeal and Affection for your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, and feeling the utmoſt Indignation and Abhorrence at the Treachery and obſtinate Rebellion of your Majeſty's American Subjects, and the Duplicity and inſidious Behaviour of the Courts of France and Spain, and the avowed Inſult of your Majeſty and the State, beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our fixed and ſteady Reſolution, to the utmoſt of our Ability, to ſupport your Majeſty in ſuch Meaſures as ſhall be adopted for the Safety and Preſervation of the Kingdom and its Intereſts, and for giving ſuch Correction to the Enemies of your Majeſty and the State as ſhall procure ample Indemnification for the Wrongs already ſuffered, and render it their Intereſt and Inclination to live peaceably and inoffenſively for a long Time to come: And being perſuaded that nothing can more effectually or ſpeedily procure ſo deſireable an Event than a powerful and triumphant Navy, we have reſolved to exert ourſelves according to our Power and Influence in procuring Men for that Service, and aiding your Majeſty's Officers on every Occaſion.

May the God of the Univerſe ſhield your Majeſty's Perſon, ſteel the Hearts of all your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, and render your Fleets and Armies not only Victorious on the preſent Occaſion, but make them the Scourge of the Arrogant and Rapacious, and the Protection and Support of the Weak and Oppreſſed in all future Generations!

Signed in Name and Preſence of the General Meeting, and by their Appointment, at Stonehaven, the Fourteenth Day of July, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine Years.

KINTORE, Preſident.

At Stonhaven, the 14th of July, 1779 Years, in the Preſence of the Right Honourable the Earl of Kintore, Sir David Carnegie, George Carnegie of Pittarrow, James Scott of Brothertoun, David Scott of Nether Benholm, Robert Barclay of Ury, John Duncan of Muchells, John Auldjo of Portlethen, James Scott of Commieſton, John Foulerton of Thornton, and Dr. William Young of Falſide; the Earl of Kintore being elected Preſes.

THE Meeting having been called together for the Purpoſe of conſidering the beſt Means of ſupporting and ſtrengthening the Hands of Government in the preſent State of public Affairs; and the Meeting having imparted their Sentiments individually, and being unanimouſly reſolved to exert themſelves for aiding the public Service, and giving every Expreſſion of that Loyalty and public Spirit with which their Breaſts are warmed, the Meeting, in the firſt Place, reſolve to addreſs His Majeſty, and give full Aſſurances of every Support to the Meaſures that His Majeſty's Wiſdom ſhall adopt in the preſent Conjuncture; they next reſolve to give every Aid and Aſſiſtance in their Power, as Magiſtrates and private Gentlemen, to His Majeſty's Officers for procuring Men to ſerve in the Royal Navy; and as they are reſolved themſelves to give no Aſylum or any Kind of Countenance to the Concealment of Seafaring People, or others proper for the Service, ſo they enjoin every other Perſon to adopt and obſerve the ſame Meaſure; and not only ſo, but alſo to bring forth every ſuch Perſon from their Lurking-Places, ſo as they may be open to be taken and forced to that Service, which they ought voluntarily to embrace; but at the ſame Time, that ſuch People may be ſtimulated voluntarily to offer themſelves to the Service, the Meeting unanimouſly reſolve to give proper Encouragement by offering ſome proper Sum to the Perſons themſelves, or Patronage and Aſſiſtance to their Families and deſtitute Dependents: And in order to raiſe a proper Fund for that Purpoſe, the Meeting unanimouſly reſolve for themſelves, and recommend to every every other landed Gentleman in the County, to ſubſcribe a Subſcription Paper, and thereby engage themſelves to pay at the Rate of Five Shillings Sterling for every Hundred Pound Scots of the valued Rent they enjoy in the County, and this Fund to be diſpoſed of in the Way that ſhall be found moſt conducive to the intended Purpoſe, to be determined and fixed upon by a Committee to be named for that Purpoſe, and to be paid into the Hands of ſuch Perſon the Committee ſhall appoint, within Six Days from the Demand. And the Meeting, in order to carry their Reſolutions into Execution, nominate and appoint the Right Honourable the Earl of Kintore, the Right Honourable the Viſcount of Arbuthnott, Lord Adam Gordon, Lord Gardenſton and Monboddo, Sir Alexander Ramſay, Sir David Carnegie, Sir James Nicolſon, Sir William Ogilvy, Mr. Barclay of Ury, Mr. Carnegie of Pittarrow, Mr. Duncan of Muchells, Mr. Auldjo, Mr. Foulerton, Mr. Scott of Commieſton, Mr. David Scott, Mr. Scott of Brotherton, Doctor Young, or any Five of them, as a Committee; and this Meeting in the firſt Place inſtantly appoint their Preſes to form a proper Addreſs at the Sight of the Meeting, and to tranſmit it to Lord Adam Gordon, to be by him, or his Directions, preſented to His Majeſty in the moſt proper and reſpectful Manner; and alſo to form a Subſcription Paper, according to the Spirit of theſe Reſolutions, to be inſtantly ſubſcribed by the Gentlemen preſent, and Copies thereof, together with Copies of theſe Reſolutions, to be ſent to every Gentleman of the County by proper Perſons, to ſolicit their Subſcription and Adherence to theſe Reſolutions, and alſo Copies tranſmitted to ſuch of the Members of the County as reſide at a Diſtance; and they name and appoint Robert Burne, Writer in Stonhaven, the Clerk of the preſent Meeting, to be Clerk to the further Procedure in this Affair, and to tranſmit the Subſcription Papers, &c. as above directed, and to get printed Copies of them for the Purpoſe, and this he is appointed to do without Delay; and the Meeting appoint the Committee to meet for the Firſt Time in the Houſe of James Andrew, at Bridge of Leapie, upon the Twenty-fourth Inſtant; and they appoint the Clerk to form from theſe Reſolutions a proper Abſtract, to be inſert in the Edinburgh and Aberdeen News-papers.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Juſtices of the Peace and Commiſſioners of the Land-Tax, and other Proprietors of Land within the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, aſſembled this Day at the Head Burgh of the Stewartry, beg Permiſſion to offer your Majeſty our warmeſt Aſſurances of Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Family, and of Zeal for the Safety and Honour of your Dominions, in this critical Situation of Public Affairs.

Conſcious of the Dignity of our Situation as Subjects of the Britiſh Empire, it has ever been our moſt earneſt Deſire that its political and commercial Rights be inviolably preſerved; Rights which have on repeated Occaſions called forth the Ambition and Envy of the faithleſs Houſe of Bourbon in unavailing Efforts to infringe them: For the Wiſdom of Britiſh Councils, and the Spirit of Britiſh Subjects, have hitherto, by the Bleſſing of Providence, rendered thoſe Efforts ineffectual.

At this important Juncture, a ſpeedy Supply of Seamen for manning your Majeſty's Fleet appears an Object meriting the ſerious Attention of every Friend to the Religion and Liberties of his Country.

To contribute every Aid within our Power towards this moſt neceſſary Meaſure is the Purpoſe of the preſent Meeting. Premiums have been held out by it to induce Seamen to become Volunteers on Board the Royal Navy; and where Rewards may prove ineffectual, we conſider it our Duty to force proper Perſons into the Service of their Country, by ſuch compulſory Meaſures as are not repugnant to its Laws.

Permit us, moſt gracious Sovereign, in our own Names, and in the Names of your other Subjects in this County, to aſſure your Majeſty, that our Fortunes and our Lives ſhall ever be devoted to fruſtrate the Attempts of the Enemies of Great Britain.

Signed by Order of the Meeting, at Kirkcudbright, the 13th Day of July, 1779, Ja. Laurie, Preſes.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Repreſentatives of the Royal Boroughs of Scotland, in Annual Convention aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Repreſentatives of the Royal Boroughs of Scotland, in Annual Convention aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, to expreſs our firm Attachment to your Majeſty, and our determined Reſolution to act in Behalf of our Country againſt her ancient Enemies.

We have beheld, with Concern and Indignation, the Trade of your Majeſty's Colonies, which of Right belongs to your Realms, by the unnatural Conduct of your rebellious Subjects, transferred to the Hands of your Enemies, who, after inſidiouſly ſupporting the Rebellion of your Subjects, have commenced open Hoſtilities againſt your Majeſty.

As Repreſentatives of a large Body of the mercantile Part of your Majeſty's Subjects, we are conſcious that it is our Duty to exert ourſelves to carry on ſo juſt a War; —attended that War may be with ſome Inconvenience and Interruption to Trade in the mean Time; but it is eſſential to its future Security. The moſt effectual Aid we can give, is, by exerting ourſelves to the utmoſt in enabling your Majeſty to reduce your Enemies to Reaſon, by encreaſing your Maritime Force; and we have taken ſuch Meaſures as to us were attainable to promote this End.

That the Tranquility of your Majeſty's Dominions may be re-eſtabliſhed, that your Enemies may be taught to revere the Wiſdom of your Councils, and that they may be convinced the Dignity and Rights of your Crown are not to be inſulted with Impunity, is the earneſt Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects,

The Repreſentatives of the Royal Boroughs of Scotland, in Annual Convention aſſembled.

Signed in our Name, in our Preſence, and by our Appointment, by Edinburgh, July 15, 1779. Walter Hamilton, Preſes.

In the General Convention of the Royal Boroughs of Scotland, holden at the City of Edinburgh on the Fourteenth Day of July, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Seventy-nine Years, by their Commiſſioners therein aſſembled.

THE which Day the Commiſſioner from Dunbar moved, That, as this Kingdom was preſently at War with France and Spain, the Convention ſhould ſhould conſider of ſome ſpeedy and effectual Method for raiſing Men for His Majeſty's Navy; whereupon the Convention Unanimouſly Reſolve, That they will give every Aid and Aſſiſtance in their Power to the ſpeedily manning of His Majeſty's Navy; and heartily approve of the ſpirited and zealous Conduct of thoſe Boroughs, who, by advertiſing large Bounties, had encouraged Volunteers to offer their Service, ſo eſſentially requiſite to the Public in the preſent Emergence: And the Convention further declare, and recommend it to the Attention of the reſpective Boroughs, that, if neither their Duty to ſerve the Public, nor the many high Bounties which have been offered, ſhall induce Seafaring Men to enter voluntarily on Board the Fleet on or before the Firſt Day of Auguſt next, they will hold ſuch Seafaring Men altogether unexcuſeable; and will uſe the moſt vigorous Exertions to compel that Service by Force, which neither Duty to the Public, nor the Encouragement of large Bounties, has been able to produce.—Extracted from the Records of the General Convention of the Royal Boroughs of Scotland, by me, Conjunct General Clerk, Jn° Dundas.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Town Council of your antient Royal Burgh of Ayr, in Common Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, beg Leave to expreſs our deep Senſe of the various Bleſſings which we have enjoyed under your mild and conſtitutional Government.

We at the ſame Time lament with the utmoſt Concern the alarming Situation of the preſent State of Publick Affairs, when the Crowns of France and Spain have confederated themſelves againſt the Safety of the Britiſh Empire. We do apprehend that at ſo critical a Juncture it requires the greateſt Unanimity and the utmoſt Exertions of all Ranks of your Majeſty's Subjects to be aiding to the Strength of your Majeſty's Fleets and Armies; and we doubt not, by the Bleſſing of God, and the Vigour and Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, that ſuch raſh and deſperate Deſigns muſt and will be totally fruſtrated.

Animated by the ſtrongeſt Motives, Duty, Gratitude, Affection, and Intereſt, we beg Leave to give your Majeſty the moſt ſolemn Aſſurances, that we and the Inhabitants of this Burgh are determined to hazard our Lives and Fortunes in the Defence of your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and the Succeſſion in your Illuſtrious Houſe; perſuaded that the Preſervation of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, entirely depends thereon.

May the Almighty long preſerve your Sacred Majeſty, the Protector of your Subjects, and Defender of the Rights of Great Britain; and may your Subjects with Thankfulneſs be ever ſenſible of the Happineſs they have enjoyed, and cannot fail to be bleſſed with, during your Majeſty's Reign.

Ayr, July 5, 1779.

Signed in Preſence and by Order of the Council,

Da. Ferguſſon, Provoſt.

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and Manufacturers of the Town and Neighbourhood of Birmingham, has been preſented to the King by the Earl of Hertford, Lord-Lieutenant of the County of Warwick: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants and Manufacturers of the Town and Neighbourhood of Birmingham, humbly beg Leave, in the preſent critical Situation of National Affairs, to expreſs our inviolable Fidelity and Attachment to your Sacred Perſon, Family and Government.

We view with Indignation the inſidious Conduct of the Houſe of Bourbon, and prompted by every Motive of Duty, Affection and Intereſt, we beſeech your Majeſty to accept the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of our zealous and vigorous Support in every Meaſure which may be neceſſary for maintaining the Honor and Dignity of your Majeſty's Crown, defeating the hoſtile Deſigns of our common Enemies, and preſerving to your Majeſty's faithful Subjects the invaluable Bleſſings of Liberty, Security and Commerce.

We beg Leave, with great Humility, Moſt Gracious Sir, to add our earneſt Prayers, that the Divine Providence may protect your Sacred Perſon, and bleſs your Counſels and Arms with Succeſs; and that the Diſturbers of the Peace of your Majeſty's Dominions, being baffled in all their Attempts, your Majeſty's Reign may be long over a free, happy and united People.
